O R D E R (ORAL)

(Hon'ble Mr. Justice M. Ramachandran, Vice Chairman (J)

We have heard counsel for applicants as also the respondents. It is seen that the plea of the applicants was similar to the one of his colleagues, who had filed OA No 1715/2004 (Smt. Santosh Wadhwa and Ors. Vs. UOI & Ors), which is not disputed.

2. The above case has been decided by this Tribunal upholding the claim of the applicants, therein. It is brought to our attention that the facts of the earlier OA bearing No. 2487/2003 are similar in the present case. OA No. 2487/2003 which was taken up to Hon'ble High Court, and the judgment of this Court has been upheld in WP (C) No. 20076/2004.

3. In the aforesaid circumstances, propriety demands that benefits which have been given in OA 1715/2004 shall be extended to the applicants in the present case also.

OA 2451/2004

Present: Sh. Ajesh Luthra, counsel for applicant.
None for respondents.

An order in this OA had been passed on 09.03.2007. Since an error was crept in the said order, we suo motu reposted the matter for re-hearing on 03.04.2007.

Respondents submitted that a judgment, as it stands today, required to be changed appropriately in line of submissions made on an earlier date of hearing as the OA was disposed of on the basis of decision in OA No. 2487/2003.

We find that OA No. 2487/2003 had been dismissed. Although the matter ^{was} taken up by the High Court whereby ~~a~~ judgment had been upheld but no relief was granted to the applicant and resultantly we are of the view that no interference is required to be made. In view of the above, the present application stands dismissed.

This order is to be tagged along with order dated 9.03.2007
