.... Respondents

(through Sh. Rajender Khatter, Advocate)

Order (Oral)

Applicants, who had been accorded temporary status and thereafter regularized seek arrears of salary on the basis of several decisions rendered including one in CP-390/2003 in OA-369/2003 (Subash Dhar & Ors. Vs. U.O.I. & Ors.).

2. It is stated on behalf of the respondents that it would be difficult for them to bring the records and verify. It is also stated that the application is devoid of delay.

3. In the light of the fact that similar claim had been allowed and the applicants are being similarly circumstanced, this O.A. is covered by the decision (supra). In this view of the matter, as pay and allowances constitute continuous cause and recurring one, limitation would not apply.

4. In this view of the matter, O.A. stands disposed of with a direction to the respondents to verify the records of the applicants and in the event assistance from applicants regarding production of record is required, the
