O R D E R (ORAL)

It is observed that the relief as prayed for by the applicant in paragraph 8 of this Original Application had earlier been sought to be granted by the respondents. The applicant has contended that his pay for the period in question was drawn at the rate of Rs.5200/- and not at the rate of Rs.5000/- as mentioned at annexure A-3 (page 9 of the paper book). The applicant has, however, not represented to the respondents after having received their reply dated 21.5.2004. He has submitted that he met the authority concerned in the matter, but they have not responded favourably so far.

2. Having regard to the fact that the applicant has not exhausted the departmental remedies as available to
