O R D E R (ORAL)

Mr. Shaker Raju,

As the issue involved is grounded on identical facts and a question of law, to avoid multiplicity, these are disposed of by this common order.

2. Non-extension of benefit of judgments whereby EDP Cadres have been accorded benefit of revision of pay scale with consequential benefits w.e.f. 1.1.1986 has been assailed.

3. In OA 1920/2004, applicants are Technical Assistants wherein in OA 1335/2004, applicants are also Technical Assistants in Joint Cipher Bureau and in OA 2779/2004 Technical Assistants have challenged orders of even date rejecting their request for grant of revision of pay scale w.e.f. 1.1.86.

4. Common relief has been sought in the present OAs for grant of revision of pay scale from 1.1.86 with consequential benefits as re-designated category of DPA Gr.B/Junior Programmer/Programmer and DPA Gr.B with all consequential benefits. In so far as the pay scales to the re-designated DPA Gr. A and B is concerned, Ministry of Defence vide order dated 11.11.97 in compliance of the directions in OA 2691/96 in T.P. Kataria v. UOI by an order dated 30.5.97 accorded all the benefits.

5. As regards the benefit to the Technical Assistants is concerned, the Division Bench of this Tribunal in OA 550/2004 in R.K. Walia & Ors. v. UOI decided on 7.12.2004 with the following observations, allowed the OA.

"6. Technical Assistants who had approached this court being aggrieved with the action of the respondents that the effective date of 1.1.86 has no reasonable nexus with the objects sought to be achieved and these qualifications have been introduced retrospectively through an administrative instruction. Applicants who are Technical Clerks are to be applied the above ratio mutatis mutandis and as in their case the qualifications have been introduced retrospectively, we do not deny that such a qualification on the basis of educational requirement is permissible, but the Recruitment Rules for want of any specific provisions incorporated cannot be applied retrospectively to the detriment of the employees modifying or altering their service conditions.

7. In this view of the matter, over-ruling the objections raised by the learned counsel for the respondents, we are of the considered view the decisions in the case of B.N.Sharma as well as in OA 337/2002 are squarely applicable in the case of applicants being a ratio laid down in the aforesaid cases.

8. In the result, for the foregoing reasons, OA is allowed. Impugned orders are quashed and set aside. Respondents are directed to extend the benefits of the decisions (supra) to the applicants herein by granting DEO 'B' grade w.e.f. 1.1.86 with all consequential benefits within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs."

6. In another case by the Tribunal in OA 804/2004 decided on 23.12.2004 Satya Prakash v. UOI reiterated the aforesaid directions.

7. Learned counsel for the applicants states that the applicants are identically situated and cannot be deprived of the extension of benefits of these judgments.

8. On the other hand, respective counsel for the respondents in the OAs vehemently opposed the contentions and stated that ratio would not apply to the present cases and non-applicants cannot be granted the benefits.

9. On careful consideration of the rival contentions and having regard to the decision of the Apex Court by the Constitution Bench in K.C. Sharma v. UOI (1998(I)SLJSC.54), benefit of decision cannot be denied to similarly circumstanced is within object to avoid multiplicity and wastage of exchequer.

10. Having regard to the facts in question, we are satisfied that the applicants are in all four covered by the decision of the Tribunal referred to supra and are entitled to the benefits thereof.

11. In the result, OAs are allowed. Impugned orders are set aside. Respondents are directed to extend to the applicants benefits of decision in Satya Prakash and R.K. Walias's case supra and while computing consequential benefits, their claim for DPA Gr. A and B with consequential benefits and arrears would also be considered as accorded to the similarly circumstanced. The aforesaid exercise shall be completed within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Copy of this order shall be kept in all the files. 16
