indigent situation. The applicant sought compassionate appointment of the applicant no. 2 on the death of her husband and addressed a request in this regard to the respondents on 8-6-1998. On having been asked by the respondents to submit certain papers relating to income, no objection from other family members in regard to consideration of the case of the applicant no. 2, etc., the applicant furnished the said particulars on 11-4-2004. However, over six and a half years have passed, but no reply has been received from the respondents so far in the matter.

2. Having regard to the fact that the matter has been pending with the respondents for as long a period as six and a half years, and also that the details which had been asked for from the applicant have already been furnished to the respondents, this OA is disposed of at the admission stage itself with direction to the respondents to consider the request of the applicant for appointment of applicant no. 2 on compassionate ground in consequence of the death of her husband with reference to the relevant rules/instructions on the subject and to dispose of the matter by issuing a reasoned and speaking order as per law within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
