ORDER (Oral)Mr. Justice M. Ramachandran, VC(J)

It is argued by Shri S.M. Garg, counsel for the applicant that there has been willful disobedience on the part of the respondents as would be seen from the counter reply.

2. They have gone back from the stand adopted at the time of disposal ^{Counsel submitted.} Counsel for respondents submits that Original application was disposed of on 21.02.2006 with a direction to respondents to pass appropriate orders. Now respondents have passed final orders on 12.02.2008. A copy of the same has been handed over to counsel for applicant today. It may not be within our jurisdiction to sit over the order in these proceedings.

3. In the circumstances, the present contempt petition is closed with liberty to the applicant to seek remedy as admissible under law, and even by an OA, if so advised. Notices issued to the respondents are discharged.
