ORDER BY CIRCULATION

By Hon'ble Mr. Justice M.A. Khan, Vice Chairman (J)

The present RA has been filed by the applicant seeking review of our order dated 7.12.2005 passed in OA 2414 of 2004.

2. We have perused the relevant record and order dated 7.12.2005 and do not find any mistake or error apparent on the face of the record or there is discovery of new and important material and evidence which was not in the knowledge or could not be produced by the applicant even after exercise of the due diligence when the matter was decided. If the review applicant is not satisfied with the order passed by the Tribunal,

Justice M.A. Khan

remedy lies elsewhere. The Apex Court in Union of India Vs. Tarit Ranjan Das, 2004

SCC (L&S) 160 observed as under:-

“13. The Tribunal passed the impugned order by reviewing the earlier order. A bare reading of the two orders shows that the order in review application was in complete variation and disregard of the earlier order and the strong as well as sound reasons contained therein whereby the original application was rejected. The scope for review is rather limited and it is not permissible for the forum hearing the review application to act as an appellate authority in respect of the original order by a fresh order and rehearing of the matter to facilitate a change of opinion on merits. The Tribunal seems to have transgressed its jurisdiction in dealing with the review petition as if it was hearing an original application. This aspect has also not been noticed by the High Court”.

3. Having regard to the above, RA is dismissed.
