This is an application filed by the Delhi Educational & Vocational Guidance Counsellors & Association through its President, Shri Brijnath Mian under Section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act 1985. Section 19 reads as under:-

"19. Application to Tribunals:-(1)

Subject to the other provisions of this Act, a person aggrieved by any order pertaining to any matter within the jurisdiction of a Tribunal may make an application to the Tribunal for the redressal of his grievance....."

2. The learned Counsel for the petitioner is present. We have heard his arguments about the maintainability of the application.

the Act quoted above that only the persons who are directly affected by an impugned order can apply under the aforesaid way directed against the Delhi Educational & Vocational Guidance Counsellors Association even if it is deemed to be a legal person, it cannot be said to have been aggrieved by the impugned order and cannot, therefore, have any locus standi for moving an application before the Tribunal. In this respect, Section 19 is unique in allowing only those employees who are directly affected to come up before the Tribunal in their individual capacity^{or} in representative capacity but not through an Association or a body outside and distinct from the employees of the Government or public sector undertakings etc. In the circumstances, we cannot admit the application and permit the learned Counsel for the applicant to withdraw the same. The application is dismissed as withdrawn.
