2. The grounds taken in the OA are firstly, that the applicant is entitled to all the protection of his fundamental rights and secondly, that he has a deep interest in the progress on the animal husbandry front.

3. From the materials on record we notice that the appointment has been made in consultation with the UPSC on the basis of Recruitment Rules. Applicant has not been able to make out any case from the available materials, on the basis of which it can be said that his fundamental rights have been affected, and an interest, however deep, in the progress on the animal husbandry front is no ground to warrant any interference in the impugned order. Under the circumstances the OA is dismissed. No costs.
