O R D E R (ORAL)

Hon'ble Mr. Justice B. C. Saksena -

Learned counsel for the respondents stated before us that the respondents have taken vacant possession of the Railway quarter in question. The applicant, however, disputes the dues towards DCRG which are admissible to him and which are indicated in paragraph 1 of the reply filed by the respondents. The Estate Officer has already passed an order and an appeal against the same is still pending before the District Judge. No further orders are required in this C.C.P. The notices are discharged and the proceedings are dropped.

Bor
