ORDER (ORAL)

By Hon'ble Sh. V. Rajagopala Reddy, Vice Chairman (J)

Heard counsel for the petitioner and respondent.

2. The only direction given in the order of the Tribunal dated 29.7.99 was to expunge the adverse remarks in the ACRs of the applicant in the year 1985-86.
3. It is now stated by the respondents that the remarks have since been expunged. However, as there was a direction that the applicant is also entitled for consequential reliefs, the respondents has to consider the case of the applicant for promotion w.e.f. 1985-86 ignoring the adverse remarks which have not been expunged and for all the consequential benefits which the petitioner is entitled to. CP is, accordingly, ~~dismissed~~ ^{closed} alongwith MA-1874/2000. This exercise shall be completed within a period of three months from today.
