The complaint in this application is that the order dated 16-08-1993, passed by us is being observed in its breach. The operative portion of the order, which is relevant for the present application is:

" The application is, therefore, partly allowed in that the respondents are directed not to revert the applicants from their Class-III posts simply because they have been regularised against Class-IV vacancies. "

It is stated at the Bar that the respondents are treating the petitioner as Class-IV employee.

We have carefully gone through the order of 89

this Tribunal and we find that this Tribunal neither expressly nor impliedly prohibited the respondents from doing so. The application has no force and it is dismissed summarily.
