ORDER (ORAL)

By Hon'ble Mr. S. Das Gupta AM

This contempt application was filed alleging non compliance with an interim order passed by a bench of this Tribunal dated 31.1.1996. By this interim order, it was provided that till the next date, status quo as on that date be maintained in respect of the applicant.

2. The controversy before the bench related to an order of termination of services of the applicant. The respondents have stated in the C. A. that the order of termination was served on the applicant on 23.1.1996 and therefore on the date the interim order was passed, services of the applicant already stood terminated.

3. The applicant has filed rejoinder affidavit in which it has been stated that the termination order was passed illegally and arbitrarily. He has also contended that the charge of the post is still with him, and has not been taken by any other authority. Specific averment of the respondents is that the termination order was delivered to the applicant on 23.1.1996 and it was given effect immediately. In view of this the position on the date the interim order was passed was that the applicant's services ~~have~~ stood terminated.

4. In view of this, we do not find that the respondents have committed any contempt of this court. Contempt application is, therefore, dismissed. Notices issued are discharged, ~~and contempt proceedings are dropped.~~
