Opp. Parties in all the C.C.As

By Advocate Shri B.B. Paul

ORDER ( Oral )

BY Hon'ble Mr.S. Dayal, Member (A)

These contempt applications have been filed for proceeding against the opposite parties for wilful and deliberate disobedience of directions given in order dated 04.11.1996 passed in O.A.No. 1642 to 1652 of 1994. We have heard Shri Sudhir Agrawal, learned counsel for the applicants and Shri B.B. Paul, learned counsel for the respondents in all the contempt applications. Learned counsel for the applicants mentions that the respondents have filed a counter-affidavit in which order dated 02nd January, 2001 has been annexed, by which ten <sup>the</sup> of/eleven applicants have been engaged as Substitute Porter/<sub>but,</sub> the applicants should have been engaged as Ticket Collectors instead of which they have been engaged as Substitute Porter, is subject to condition when the occupant of the post returned from leave or on account of any other reasons. He states that as per the order dated 25.10.1999 passed on misc.applications in O.A.No.1642 to 1652 of 1994, the minimum compliance required was of treating the applicants as casual labour with temporary status because they had worked for more than 2 years, which is not apparent from the order dated 02.1.2001.

2. Shri B.B. Paul, learned counsel for the opposite parties has drawn attention to affidavit of compliance filed on 13.10.2000, in which order dated 10.10.2000 is annexed, by which the competent authority had permitted the appointments of the applicants in O.A.No. 1642 to 1652 of 1994, in Group 'D' as Casual Labour in C.P.C. Scale/Porter. Pursuant to that the applicants have been given appointment letters dated 26.12.2000, by which they have been appointed as Temporary/Substitute Porters. Learned counsel for the opposite parties states at bar that this appointment has been made pursuant to order dated 10.10.2000 of the A.P.O. and has been made on regular basis to a Group 'D' post and no further screening of the applicants would be required for appointment to Group 'D' post and this would be subject to <sup>orders in</sup> Writ Petitions pending in High Court of Allahabad and Hon'ble Apex Court, if any, relating to this matter.

3. In view of the position made above, it is now clear that no contempt of the order survives. The contempt proceedings are, therefore, dropped and notices issued, are discharged.

4. This order shall not apply to C.C.A.91 of 1997 in O.A.No.1643 of 1994 because the applicant Shri Atul Kashyap is reported to have died in June, 2000 and the order with regard to him does not survive.
