O R D E R

(By Hon'ble Mr. S. Biswas, A.M.)

In a joint application, 51 applicants seek the following remedies:

i) Direction to the respondents to re-engage the applicants and also, regularise their service on the basis of position of their names^{as} registered in the Life Casual Labour Register.

ii) Direction to respondents not to give employment to fresh casual, labourers- before taking the respondents back.

2- All the applicants worked for more than 240 days between 1975-85 in spells, as referred by work Inspector, Railways on different dates. They were disengaged on before 1980- excepting Sri Dina Nath Pandey March 1981, Avdesh Ku. Singh Oct. 1981, Tarkeshwar Prasad Singh Oct 1981, Anuragh Singh Oct 1981, Ishwar Rai March 1981, Ram Lakan Prasad Yadav Oct 1981, Mithelash Kumar Oct 1981, Ram Janan Prasad oct 1981, Raj Ballabh Mahto oct 1981, Surendra Mishra March 1981, Surendra Singh oct 1981, Umesh Kumar Singh oct. 1981. Their sanction for reengagement after disengagement was not renewed. Since then the respondents have re-engaged others on 28-5-93, 12-8-93 and 24-10-94, but not them.

Chagelu, Chujawan, Sitaram, Naggu Sahthu, Kesari N. Pandey, and their junior were engaged in 1994

The applicants met the respondents in this connection but with no avail. Their verbal promises were not honoured. ^{14pt} ₅₃

3- The counsel for the applicant appeared last time on 14-5-99. Thereafter he repeatedly sought adjournment on personal grounds (19-8-99 and 11-11-99) He made no appearances on 9-3-2000 and 17-5-2000. Since this is a 1997 case and the counsel for the applicant has seemingly lost interest in the case, I proceed to decide the case on merits on the basis of records.

4- As per the submissions of the applicants they worked in spells for more than 240 days prior to Oct. 1981 but were discharged. It is an admitted fact that they hold no casual labour card on the alleged ground that these were not issued to them in that period. The respondents counsel in their reply has totally denied, any record whatsoever in respect of these applicants. Their names also do not figure in the Live Casual Employees Register. The respondents' counsel has stated that in terms of Hon'ble CAT Allahabad's order in O.A. 73 of 1992, Baijnath and others vs. ^{Vo} Live Casual Labour Register was prepared for ex-casual labours ^{who} ~~also~~ worked upto 1981 by issue of proper notification (dt. 25-11-93). The applicant's name in the first place do not appear there as claimed. Nor they responded to notfn dt. 25-11-93 and made any efforts to get their names entered there. Had they got any claim, they would have availed this opportunity. They have done neither. Their submission that their names appear in Live Casual Labourer Register is factually incorrect. The respondents have refuted the allegations of reengagements of others who did not fulfill the ^{criteria} ~~direction~~ for absorption as contained in decision in O.A. 358/89 or O.A. 61/92 after medical fitness ^{again} ~~part~~ existing vacancies. Similarly no ex-casual labour belonging to the general category has also been reengaged. The names cited by the applicants were those of S/C, S/T. Candidates who were engaged on the basis of Hon'ble CAT's order in O.A. 358/89 and 61/92. It was also been denied that K.N. Pandey is junior to them.

5- The petitioners were discharged on prior to Oct. 1981, but their present application was filed in 1997 after more than 16 years. Even their representations before the respondents is dt 10.5.97. Their verbal approach, cannot be taken as authentic.

6- In the situation and for facts and legal position enumerated above, the O.A. fails on merits. The O.A. is dismissed.

No Costs.
