~~side~~<sup>side</sup> of the respondents and, therefore, he has come up seeking relief for direction to make payment of balance of retiral benefits and also admissible pay arrears. Learned counsel for the applicant mentioned that the applicant is also ~~entitled~~ to interest for delayed payment and has <sup>but</sup> ~~to~~ forward his claim for amount of interest as admissible under rule and directions by Hon'ble Supreme Court from time to time on several occasions. Learned counsel for the respondents mentions that as per his instructions the ~~app~~ applicant has not submitted clearance certificate of Store, which was in his charge and has also not informed regarding vacation of railway <sup>& accommodation</sup> ~~administration~~ as per prevailing rules in the department.

2. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the matter, the O.A. is disposed of with the direction that the pending representation of the applicant (ann.A-5) be decided within four weeks from the date of communication of this order after taking into consideration the facts as communicated through annexure-3 dated 28.8.97, and the amount, if any, payable to the applicant, be paid to him within 3 months thereafter with interest as admissible under rules. The applicant is also directed to furnish the complete information in respect of charge of the Store and vacation of official residence allotted to him by the railway department. No cost.
