Order

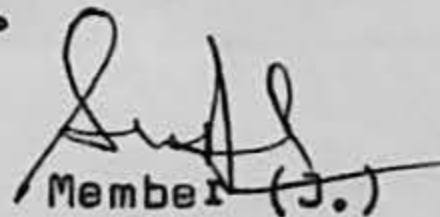

(By Hon'ble Mr. S.Dayal, Member(A.))

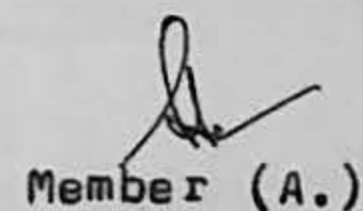

This contempt petition has been filed for initiating contempt proceedings against the opposite parties and punish them suitably.

The order in question is the order passed in O.A. 1205/92 on 28.7.97 permitting the applicants to make a representation giving full facts about his family and directing the respondents to consider the representing applications^{li} for compassionate appointment in the light of instructions contained master circular dated 12.12.90 within three months from the date of receipt of representation.

2. The opposite parties have filed reply along with Annexure No.1 in which they have given an order on the representation of the applicants dated 29.9.98. A perusal of the order does not show that the opposite parties have committed any ~~in~~deliberate disobedience of the directions given in the order of the Tribunal. There is some delay in deciding the representation but it can not be said that the delay was ~~intentional~~^{intentional} and that the respondents have committed contempt on this account.

3. The petition for contempt is therefore disallowed. The notices issued to the respondents are discharged.
