HON.MR.S.DAYAL, MEMBER(A)

Shri R. Narain learned counsel for the applicant has moved this contempt petition in pursuance of directions given in OA 200/92 decided on 27.4.93 in which directions were made for compliance of order regarding entering the name of the applicant in Live Casual labour register within three months from the date of communication of the order. The applicant has filed this contempt petition on 9.3.98. The reasons for delay stated by him that he had been making representations to the opp. parties who did not respond to his representations.

2. It is clear from the dates given above that this contempt petition is barred by limitation and ^{no} notices can be issued in this case. The contempt petition is therefore disallowed and the case is consigned to records.
