Sri A.K. Srivastava for the applicant has filed this Contempt Petition for proceeding against the respondents for deliberate disobedience of the order dated 13th July, 2000.

2. By order dated 13th July, 2000, a Division Bench of this Tribunal had passed the following order:-

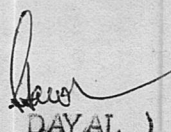

" The applicant shall be allowed to work on the post and shall be paid salary, for which he may be entitled as per rules."

3. The learned counsel for the applicant Sri A.K. Srivastava has been heard. The learned counsel for the applicant has mentioned that a copy of the order passed by the Division Bench was served on the respondents on 25.7.2000. In the application of the same date, the applicant had requested the respondents to make payment from 3.3.99 onwards and for being taken on duty.

4. The learned counsel for the applicant states that the applicant has been taken back on duty after the order dated 14.7.2000 was passed.

5. In the order dated 14.7.2000 of the Division Bench of this Tribunal, the respondents were directed to make payment of salary, for which the applicant may be entitled as per rules. The applicant has to make a prayer for payment of salary, for which he has already filed a representation dated 23.11.2000. The respondents will doubtlessly decide his representation and there is no prima facie case for issuing notices for contempt to the respondents. Hence, the Contempt Petition stands rejected.
