Hon'ble Mr. Justice RRK Trivedi, VC.

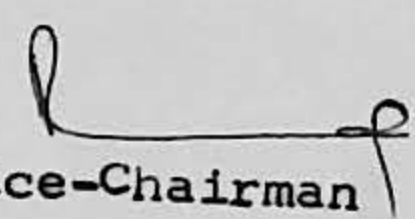

This contempt application has been filed alleging that the order of this Tribunal dated 20.09.2000 passed in O.A. no. 1807 of 1994 has not been complied with.

2. This Tribunal after quashing the order of reversion dated 10.1.1997 directed the respondents to absorb the applicant and regularise him as per rules. The respondents required the applicant to appear in the trade test. The applicant, however, instead of appearing in the trade test filed objection on 27.1.2001 (Ann. 3) which has been rejected by order dated 21.2.2001 (Ann. 4). The applicant has been asked that he will be again given opportunity to appear in the trade test and if he does not appear, it shall be deemed that he does not want to comply with the order ^{of this Tribunal} accordingl to rules. In these circumstances it is difficult to say that the contempt has been ^{on committed} ~~made out~~. The contempt application is dismissed accordingly. However, if the applicant is dis-satisfied with this ^{dated 21/2/2001} order, he may challenge the same in original side.
