The above mentioned six review petitions have ~~been~~ been filed in connected O.As decided by single order on 01.08.01. The grounds taken in these review petitions are also almost the same and, therefore, they are being decided by the single order as under.

2. Perused the record and considered the grounds taken in respective review petitions and I am of the view that there is no patent mistake of law or fact, in the order under review, which requires re-consideration. While rendering the Order under review the relevant legal position and the facts as came up in respective O.As were given due weightage and consideration and there-after decision was taken,

3. For the above, the review petitions under consideration are rejected being devoid of any merit.
