O R D E R (Oral)

Hon'ble Mr. S.K.I. Naqvi, Member-J.

As per applicant's case, she was appointed as L.D.C. in the year 1977 in Ordinance Depot Fort, Allahabad. Because of her personal circumstances she moved for her transfer to Lucknow which was allowed, but she had to shed her four years seniority being taken at bottom in the cadre there. ~~It was~~ In the year ^{See 1998} 1988 ^{See} that she was transferred from Head Quarters Central Command (Farms Branch) Lucknow to Military Farm Lucknow that is within Lucknow where she joined and it was on 29.03.00 that she was transferred from Military Farm Lucknow to Military Farm Allahabad in the public interest, for which she made representations and under compelling circumstances she reported at Allahabad, but was not allowed to join vide communication annexure 12 through ^{which} Military Farm Allahabad informed Central Command (Farms) Lucknow " Posting/transfer clerks (.) Services LDC chandraDevi not required being staff held surplus to PE this farm." This situation kept the applicant in doldrums ^{for} and no place to join because as per Lucknow authorities she was to join at Allahabad but at Allahabad she has been refused to join being surplus situation in the cadre.

2. Shri D.S. Shukla counsel for the respondents strongly opposed the relief sought mainly on the ground that the applicant could move the departmental authorities for redressal and her approach to the Tribunal is premature.

Corrected today the figure 1988 to figure 1998 by scoring out 1988 and mentioning 1998. See page 23.02.2001.

3. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances, the matter is decided at admission stage with the direction that the applicant shall move the competent authority within 2 weeks alongwith copy of pending representation and the same shall be decided within 4 weeks, thereafter and in the meantime she be allowed to continue at Lucknow notwithstanding the impugned transfer order and her having reported at Allahabad under compelling circumstances.

4. No order as to costs.

5. Copy of this order alongwith copies of notices and OAs be given to Shri D.S. Shukla.
