By Hon'ble Mr.S.K.I. Naqvi, Member (J)

In all these O.A.s the applicants have grievance of similar nature that inspite of they having worked for sufficient long time and being accorded the temporary status, their services have been terminated by the oral order, which is against the departmental procedure and the law handed down by the different Courts from time to time. Since all these matters have almost similar cause of action and relief of similar nature has been sought, therefore, they can conveniently be decided by single order, though heard separately.

2. In O.A.No. 967 of 2001, Shri Chandra Bhushan claimed to have worked for 155 days and has been accorded temporary status as per order dated 10.09.1997, copy of which has been annexed as ann.-3 to the O.A.

3. The other applicant Shri Laxman in O.A. No.968/01 claims to have been accorded temporary status as per annexure-3 for having worked for 126 days.

4. In O.A.No.969/01 Shri Saral has filed annexure-2 to mention that after having worked for 235 days he has been accorded temporary status as per annexure-3.

5. Shri Inamul Haq has been accorded temporary status as per annexure-3 for having worked for 258 days.

6. In O.A.No.971/01 Shri Jamil Ahmad has mentioned that in recognition of his having worked for 258 days he was taken in the list of those who have been accorded temporary status vide annexure-3.

7. Shri S.S. Rawat has put his claim through O.A.No.972 of 2001 and has filed annexure-3 wherein his name is at serial no.1 amongst those who have been accorded temporary status in recognition of his working 218 days as per annexure-2.

8. The other applicant Manoj Ram in O.A. No.973 of 2001 has also a similar case and find his name at serial no.7 of the list through which temporary status has been granted after his having worked for 213 days.

9. In O.A.No.974/01 Israrul Haq has filed annexure-3 in support of his contention that he has already been granted temporary status as per list dated 05.10.99 wherein he is at serial no.6.

10. The other Jamil Ahmad S/o Shamshuddin was accorded temporary status as per annexure-3...pg.6/- in recognition of his having worked for 334 days in between 23.09.97 to 01.10.98.

11. The last applicant in this bunch of cases is Shri Rajendra in O.A.No.976 of 2001 claims to have worked for 300 days and given temporary status as per order dated 05.10.99 (annexure-3).

12. All the above applicants have a grievance that inspite of ~~teh~~ their having attained the temporary status, their services have been terminated by an oral order without issue of any show-cause notice or furnishing any written order. They have another grievance that their representations have also not been considered and being kept without any order thereon.

13. Heard counsel for the parties and perused the record.

14. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the matter, all these cases are being decided with the following observations:

"In case all the 10 applicants in these O.As move a fresh representation within 2 weeks, same be decided by the competent authority within 6 weeks thereafter and to pass detailed reasoned and speaking order with copy to the applicants.

15. No cost. Copy of this order be placed in each of the file.
