HON'BLE MR. K. B. S. RAJAN, MEMBER-J

The case of the applicant is that there is a discrepancy in the calculation of the amount payable to him under the Provident Fund credit. The difference amounts <sup>as much as</sup> to Rs. 40,000/- approximately. The applicant has made available a detailed statement vide Annexure-5. From Annexure-7 and 9 to 14 it is evident that the department itself is satisfied that there are certain discrepancies though the amount does not tally with the amount claimed by the applicant.

2. Provident Fund is the amount pertaining to the individual and it has got certain immunity even from attachment. It is, therefore, necessary to ensure that such amount at the credit of the individual <sup>is</sup> ~~are~~ paid accurately. In all probabilities the annual statement of Provident Fund for various years must be available with respondents and it will not be difficult for them to calculate the exact amount due to the applicant.

3. The respondents are directed to take into account the annexures added to the original application and work out the extant of Provident Fund at the credit of the applicant on the date of his retirement and after deducting the amount already paid shall remit the balance to the applicant within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

Interest on the delayed payments shall be made in
