seeking permission to join together is allowed. The applicants are permitted to join in a single application.

2. It is not disputed that facts of this case are similar to those of O.A. No.1354/2003 Kharpattu and Ors. Vs. Union of India and Ors. decided on 11.11.2003. We are therefore of the view that it would meet the ends of justice that if the original application is disposed off finally in terms of the directions given by this Tribunal in aforesaid mentioned case. It has been submitted by the counsel for the applicant that the competent authority not only disposed off the representation but implemented the order passed on the representation of the applicant.

3. Accordingly, the Original Application is disposed off with liberty to the applicants to make representation before the second respondent who shall on receipt of the representations, consider and dispose it off in accordance with law after taking into reckoning the decision that may be referred to in the representation of the applicants. The decision in the matter shall be taken within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt of a copy of the representations along with the copy of this order and the decision, the applicant want to rely on, in support of his contention.

4. There shall be no order as to costs.
