Advocate for the Respondents : Sri K.P. Singh

ORDER

None appears on behalf of the applicants.

2. A perusal of pleadings in the O.A show that the two applicants are claiming regularization. There is nothing to show that the applicants before approaching the Tribunal had approached the concerned authorities in the department for redressal of their grievance made in this O.A.

3. The relief sought in the O.A are to the effect that the respondents be directed to regularize the services of the applicants under any Railways.

4. The relief/s sought are in the nature of mandamus. It is well settled that an aggrieved person should first approach concerned authority for redressal of his grievance and then, if still aggrieved, should be permitted to approach the court.

5. The applicants have not approached the department for redressal of their grievance. If they approach the department, concerned authority may consider the same in accordance with law.

6. O.A is dismissed as above. No order as to costs.
