ORDER

1. This OA is against impugned order dated 05.12.2006 placed at Annexure A-1 being in the nature of speaking order rejecting the claim of the applicant for appointment on compassionate grounds. In a long and winding order various rulings by Higher Judicial forum have been cited. Para 7 of the impugned order reads as under:-

BN

"As per Govt. of India MOD ID No.19(4)/824-99/1998-D (Lab) dated 09 mar 2001, the candidates are required to apply only one and the application if not recommended in the first Board Of Officers for want of vacancy is to be considered afresh alongwith the fresh applicant by the Board of Officers on three occasions consecutively and the final decision is to be communicated to the applicant by a detailed speaking order."

2. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the pleadings on record. It is to be noted that vide MOD Instructions dated 9.03.2001 have been cited above. Some what similar instructions issued vide office Memorandum dated 5.5.2003 of the Departmental of Personnel and Training, Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pension Government of India having the effect of restricting the number of years was held as ultra virus to the constitution by Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad vide judgment (SB) reported in [2009(6)ADJ 90] passed in Civil Misc. Writ petition No.2412 of 2008 decided on 8th April 2009 and also vide judgment (DB) dated 7.5.2010 passed in Writ petition No.13102 of 2010. Following the same rulings the impugned order is also found to be unsustainable as per the existing rulings of the Hon'ble High court of Allahabad.

3. It will not be out of place to mention that when the authorities are directed to pass a speaking order the idea is not to invite an essay on rulings. Similarly no useful purpose is served if the order is vague, in general terms and gives an impression of being subjective. On the contrary the order must contain details such as number of vacancies in the year/years in which the applicants case was considered, names of the candidates who were considered and their relative merit in the selection process. Similarly the evaluation and assessment has to be totally objective in as much as it must ~~be~~ disclosed the parameters considered and weightage allotted to each such parameter. The applicants are more likely to accept their fate if the selection process is uniform, transparent in procedure and discloses full result of selection process for each vacancy filled up under the rules for compassionate appointment.

4. With these observations the impugned order dated 5.12.2006 is quashed and set aside with direction to respondent no.2 to pass a fresh reasoned and speaking order on the application of the applicant by including the relevant details such as number of vacancies filled up, comparative position of the applicant vis-à-vis other applicant who may have been considered along with the applicant and then their evaluation based on objective criteria. The speaking order will be passed by ignoring the MOD instructions of 2001 in so far as they relate to the limitation of number of chances an applicant can be considered. The order will be passed within three months of receipt of a certified copy of this order. The decision will also be communicated to the applicant forthwith.

5. OA stands disposed of. No Costs.
