Original Application No. 331/00622/2020
(U/S 19, Administrative Tribunal Act, 1985)

Naresh Chandra & Others vs. Union of India & Others

ORDER ON INTERIM RELIEF

Order delivered by Hon Devendra Chaudhry (Member-A)

The present OA has been filed challenging the order 28.08.2020 by which the results of the departmental examination conducted on 29.09.2019 in Uttarakhand Circle of Dept of Posts for promotion to the post of Postman cadre from that of Gramin Dak Sevak (GDS) were held on the basis of vacancies available.

2. The brief facts of the case per the applicants are that following the issue of notification dated 10.05.2019 (Annexure-02) regarding syllabus and pattern of departmental examination for the Posts for promotion to the post of Postman cadre such as MTS, Postman, Mail Guard, Postal Assistant/Sorting Assistant from that of GDS, a Model Notification was issued vide 31.05.2019 which interalia specified that examination shall be held for vacancies emerging from vacancy years: 2015-16 to 2017-18 including the period of 01.04.2018 to 31.12.2018. That the applicants having required eligibility, wrote the examination for the post of Postal Assistant/Sorting Assistant held on 15.09.2019 and for the post of Postman/Mail Guard held on 29.09.2019 (Annexure-06). That the results of the Postal / Sorting Assistant examinations were announced on 22.04.2020 and the results of the Postman/Mail Guard examination were announced on 12.03.2020. That the respondents vide 19.05.2020 (Annexure-7 colly) called for fresh options from Surplus Candidates of the examination concerning the Postman/Mail guard held on 29.09.2019 for the vacancy year 2019. That another circular dated 09.06.2020 (Annexure-08) was also issued whereby, it was directed that appointment letters may be issued to qualifying candidates concerning examination held on 29.09.2019 for Postman/Mailguard whose results were declared on 12.03.2020 subject to the willingness of the candidates to join on the post of Postman/Mailguard. That this will be done purportedly for vacancy year 2019 comprising period 1.04.2019 to 31.12.2019. That the applicants did not qualify in the first merit list of candidates for the post of Postman/Mailguard and expected to be qualified as 'Surplus candidates' against vacancies which were presumably left unfilled following the exercise of choice for filling the same by the candidates selected both for the Postal Assistant/Sorting Assistant and the Postman/Mailguard because the post of Postal Sorting/Assistant carries some better pay conditions. However since for example in the case of the applicant vide letter dated 28.08.2020 (impugned letter), he was informed about his failure even to qualify as a 'surplus candidate'. Therefore a number of RTI applications were moved seeking vacancy position qua 2019 etc in which vide replies dated 30.07.2020, 07.08.2020, 08.10.2020, 11.09.2020, 14.09.2020, 28.09.2020, 09.10.2020 regarding the vacancy positions were informed in which it is revealed that the vacancy position even after stated filling up of vacancies from the surplus candidates is wise is actually as follows-

1. 04 vacancies for Chamoli division
2. 04 for Nainital division
3. 01 for Pithoragarh division
4. 01 for Almora division
5. 02 for Tehri Division division

Viz: total 12 vacancies are vacant in the Uttarakhand circle in its various divisions and if vacancies reserved for the MTScandidates are also included then there are some 21 vacant posts. This implies that a number of posts were lying vacant even after the declaration of the 'surplus candidates' results that is to say that inspite of the stated filling up of the vacant posts left unfilled by the choice of exercise of the candidates selected for Postal / Sorting Assistant/ or otherwise, there were still vacant posts available for the year of vacancies for which the said examinations were held and so denial of vacant posts was unjustifiable and illegal. Thus the issue to be determined is that whether, actually 12 post of Postman cadre are still vacant against which the Examination for the post of Postman/Mail Guard held on 29.09.2019 due to non-joining of the participants who were given their joining on the post of Postal Assistant/Sorting Assistants and that in fact a total of 21 posts of Postman are still vacant, and the applicants who state that they are duly qualified in the departmental examination have, as such an legitimate expectation and hope to be promoted on those post on the basis of preferential position in select list. Therefore, posts still exist and are therefore required to be filled up by such other available surplus candidates such as the applicants.

2.1 That similar procedure has been followed by other Circles such as Haryana and Jharkhand and so the Uttrakhand circle should also mandatorily fill up all posts notified for the said examination. Since the same has not been done and the representation decided wrongly vide the impugned order; hence the OA.

3.0 Thus, it emerges that the key grounds on which relief is claimed are:

- i. Following the declaration of results on 12.03.2020 and 22.04.2020 of the examinations held vide examination dated 29.09.2019 and 15.09.2019 respectively vide notifications dt. 20.08.2019 and 05.08.2019 respectively, a number of successful candidates have not joined on the post of Postman / Mail guard and so a number of notified vacancies of Postman / Mail guard are still unfilled.

- ii. That these notified unfilled vacancies, numbering about 21 (twenty one) have not been filled completely by the 'surplus candidates' as per extant guidelines.

4.0 We have heard the Id counsels for both the parties at length and perused the records available in PDF carefully and anxiously. We would now examine the prayer for the Interim relief sought by the applicants.

5.0 In order to do this, it is relevant to extract the relevant portions of the concerned documents. The same are as below:

6. It may be seen above that :
- i. vide letter dated 19.05.2020 (Annexure-7, page 99), R-2 has directed all SSPOs/SPOs in Uttrakhand Circle to call for fresh options / preferences of Divisions from the surplus qualified candidates.
  - ii. that the number of these surplus posts is 11 posts as per chart on page 102 (part of the Annexure-7).
  - iii. that as per page 103, there is a list of 13 candidates titled as list of GDS surplus candidates wherein the names of the applicants is also stated at sl, 13, 14, 17, 21, 21,26,32,37,57 and 67 based on which the applicants also filled in the required forms concerning the options.
  - iv. that vide result of surplus candidates only 10 candidates were declared surplus whereas the 19.05.2020 notification declared 11 surplus vacancies.
  - v. it is also seen that vide RTI reply dated 07.08.2020 that there are up to in fact 12 vacancies which are vacant in the first place. It is noteworthy here that this vacancy position is after the declaration of the result of surplus candidates vide notification dated 09.06.2020 which implies prima facie that in spite of the declaration of the said result, there are still 12 posts of postman/mail guard vacant, more so, after filling 10 posts by surplus candidates as declared vide the 09.06.2020 notification.

- vi. that apart from above 12 unfilled vacancies, there are other unfilled vacancies from MTS candidates who have also qualified for both Postal Assistant and Postman posts and when final count of all such posts is made then the total vacancy increases to 21 and not just 12 (para 5.15 of OA).

All these prima facie documentary evidence does indicate at this stage of analysis of the OA that there are perhaps still unfilled vacancies of postman/mail guard arising out of the vacancies notified for the 2019 examination.

7. In such an event, not to give opportunity to the applicants for being considered for the said posts seems ex-facie unjustifiable. Hence there are grounds for consideration of interim relief. The interim relief sought is that, till the disposal of the matter, the respondents be restrained from initiating any fresh selection process for the post of Postman/Mail guard which are vacant due to non-joining of the meritorious candidates who have joined on the post of Postal Assistant/Sorting Assistant.

8.0 The part relating to cancellation of the 10.01.2021 examination per se by way of not proceeding with initiating any fresh process for selection to the posts of Postman/Mail guard is not fully justifiable because that would unilaterally result in stopping an examination subsequent to the disputed notifications and the concerned examination. It would result in a unilateral action against the candidates who are at least presently qualified for writing the 2021 exam vide notification of 27.11.2020. On the other hand, to fill vacancies in consequence of the 27.11.2020 notification by including the still unfilled leftover vacancies notified in 2019 would prima facie deny opportunity to the applicants in this OA who assert that they are qualified vide result dated 12.03.2020 and 22.04.2020 discussed above and so are liable to be considered.

9.0 The ld respondent counsel has only said that they have not issued any fresh notification for filling up of vacancies and would not do so in future. This in the best of circumstances is a false misleading statement because:

- i. the current OA was filed on 20/10/2020 and was first heard on 23.11.2020 on which date it was directed that counter be filed by the respondents and the OA will be heard for interim relief on 16.12.2020.
- ii. Then again when it was heard on 16.12.2020 the ld respondent counsel stated at the bar that no new notification has been issued and no notification will be issued till the next date of hearing.

The said order is reproduced again below for ready reference:

- He also submits that he has received information from the respondent department that no new notification has been issued and no notification will be issued till the next date of hearing.
- With this assurance from the learned counsel for the respondents, the case is adjourned...."
- List on 18.01.2021 for consideration of interim relief...."

That from above it is abundantly clear that the respondents had already issued the potentially damaging notification vide date 27.11.2020 after the first hearing of the matter on 23.11.2020 and therefore it does not lie in the mouth of the ld respondent counsel to mislead the Tribunal by making the false averment that no new notification has been issued purportedly after the filing of the OA and the first hearing on 23.11.2020. Either the ld respondent counsel did not understand the implication of his statement qua the filing date of the OA and the first hearing on 23.11.2020 or it's a clear case of perjury.

10.0 Thus while the anticipated disputed notification had indeed been issued in spite of the statement at the BAR by the ld respondent counsel on 16.12.2020, the fact remains that while it is unjustifiable at this stage to halt or cancel the examination of 10.01.2020 there is good reason to withhold the declaration of the results of the said examination till the disposal of this OA so that the applicants are not visited by irreparable damage of not being considered at all vide the still unfilled vacancies and the said still unfilled vacancies are filled up and gobbled away in guise of the 27.11.2020 notification filling up of vacancies. We also do not know at this stage as to what is the status of inclusion or exclusion in the listed number of vacancies in the said notification reproduced above. Therefore prima facie there is a case for intervention in the shape of an interim direction that the result of the said examination of 10.01.2021 notified by 27.11.2020 notification is not declared till the final disposal of this OA and the claim thereby of the applicants is settled finally for or against them.

11.0 It is also noted that while the written exams will be held on 10.01.2021, other steps of some other consequential tests are also involved which would take their own time leading upto the final declaration of the result at a consequential later date. The applicants have in any case declined to write the said exam on the grounds that there is no need for them to write the exam having possible chances of qualifying on the basis of the 2019 exams against the vacancies specified qua that exam and remaining unfilled on date.

12.0 In light of above and in conclusion therefore we direct the following on the issue of interim relief:

- i. There is no case for cancellation of the exam of 10.01.2021 notified vide 27.11.2020.

- ii. The results of the examination so held will be however not declared till the pendency of this OA.
- iii. The pleadings shall be completed as already directed vide order dated 23.11.2020 for which the parties shall appear before Registrar on 15.02.2021.
- iv. The parties shall ensure filing of the pleadings in time at the pain of heavy costs as the matter is also of timely results declaration of the examination held on 10.01.2021.

The prayer for interim relief is disposed accordingly. Let the OA be listed as per above before Registrar on 15.02.2021 for completion of pleadings as already directed vide order dated 23.11.2020.
