reverted and so he cannot claim the benefit of 6 months working. He made another representation pertaining to it and he approached this Tribunal.

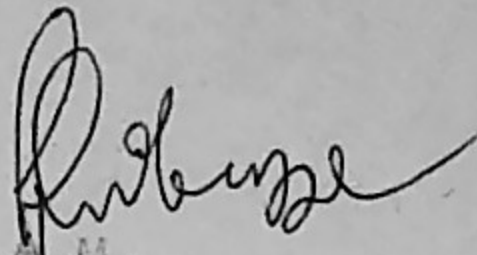

3. The representation of the applicant was decided by the respondents vide letter dated 3.2.1987 and mentioned that the applicant has a right to be considered for promotion and the respondent is duly bound to take Trade test of the applicant and in case the applicant qualifies in the test, respondent has to reclassify the applicant in promoted grade of Rs.330-480(Higher skilled grade II on the basis of seniority and to put the applicant in proper place. The applicant infact started as a Khalasi. While working as Khalasi he was given an opportunity to work as S.S. Fitter on 6.10.78 but the applicant refused to join S.S. Fitter in the grade of Rs.210-290. It was provided in the letter dated 11.4.79 that the staff promoted during the period for one year will rank senior to the said category and accordingly the staff who were promoted became senior to him and in view of the seniority position all these persons except him were promoted in the grade of Rs.330-480 after having trade test and qualified for the promotion. The applicant being the junior most was not called for. It appears that out of 6 persons the applicant has refused the promotion and rest five of them were promoted. Years have been passed, the turn of the applicant must have come and if the applicant could not have been taken it within a period of one year, his case may now be considered and he
