Order (Open Court)

(By Hon'ble Mr. S. Dayal, A.M.)

This application has been filed seeking two reliefs. The first of these is a direction to the respondents to dispose of the representation dated 30.1.92. The second is referral order dated 30.9.91 referring the matter to Central Government Industrial Tribunal, New Delhi may be quashed ^{on account} of representation dated 30.1.92 (Annexure A-7).

2. The applicant had written to the Secretary ^{to} Government of India, Ministry of Labour, New Delhi /refrain ^{to} from proceedings with the case and also /make a fresh reference to Central Government Industrial Tribunal Kanpur. The Apex Court by their judgment in the case of K.P. Gupta Vs. Controller Printing and Stationary reported in 1996 S.C.C. (L. & S.) page 264 held that cases falling under Industrial Laws do not come within the purview of the Central Administrative Tribunal. We therefore dismiss this O.A. as not maintainable before us.
