ORDER

ORDER BY HON'BLE MR. S. DAYAL, MEMBER(A)

This is an application under section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act 1985.

The applicant has come to the Tribunal seeking the relief of a direction to the respondents not to appoint the regular selected candidate and to provide preferential chance of the employment to the applicant.

The applicant has mentioned in the facts that he was appointed as Mail Runner on a Class IV post in Extra Departmental Post Office, Pichari, Distt. Azamgarh in a vacancy caused due to suspension of one Girish Chandra Mishra pending departmental proceedings against him. The applicant was appointed on 1.10.85 and he worked till 20.3.87. The applicant again worked for a brief period till 1.2.88 in village Rautmau as Extra Departmental agency against put off vacancy of one Sri Rajdeo Yadav till the reinstatement of Sri Rajdeo Yadav. His services were terminated on 1.2.88 when Sri Rajdeo Yadav resumed duties. The applicant was again appointed as Extra Departmental Agent Khairabad on a vacancy caused due to suspension of one Sri Lal Chandra Yadav on 1.2.88 and he worked there till 30.9.88. The applicant again claims to have appointed as E.O. Agent Punji from 3.10.88 to 5.9.89. On account of the incumbent being put off and his appointment was till reinstatement of the previous incumbent or regular appointment to the post. The applicant has claimed similar short term of work in the branch office of Mohammedabad Gohna, Bichpura then again at Mohammedabad Gohna. The applicant expresses apprehension that he would be made to hand over the charge of this post also. He claims that he is a retrenched employee and is entitled to have preferential consideration for regular appointment. He also mentions that he is getting over age and is therefore not likely to get another chance of service.

The respondents have filed their counter reply. They have shown in paragraph 4 of the counter reply that the applicant worked for brief periods on stop gap vacancies and had last worked from 1.2.93 paid to 17.3.93 as contingency/Chaukidar in Mohammadabad Gohna. At is stated that one Sri Jhilmit Yadav was appointed on this post as C.P. Chaukidar on 1.6.93 and has been working from 17.3.93 afternoon.

Arguments were heard.

The applicant has claimed as relief a direction to the respondents not to appoint regularly selected candidate and provide preferential chance of employment to the applicant. Such a relief is merely not admissible.

The applicant had filed his O.A. on 26.2.93 and had handed over the charge of the post of C.P. Chaukidar Mohammadabad Gohna on 17.3.93. The C.A. was filed in this case on 13.1.94. Yet the applicant has not filed any R.A. The respondents have assured in their C.A. that whenever regular appointments are made the candidature of the applicant would be considered.

In the light of above facts we are of the opinion that the reliefs claimed by the applicant can not be allowed. The O.A. is therefore dismissed as lacking in merits. There shall be no order as to costs.
