ORDER (O_r_a_l)

By Hon'ble Mr. SKI Naqvi, J.M.

Arguments placed by Sri Rakesh Verma, counsel for the applicant and Km. Sadhna Srivastava, counsel for the respondents heard.

2. A preliminary objection on the ground of jurisdiction has been raised on behalf of counsel for the respondents with the mention that the case relates to National Institute of Hydrology, Jal Vigyan Bhawan, Roorkee. The applicant claims that he has worked with them as casual labour and has sought a direction from respondent no.2 for regularisation of his service to take him in service. It has been raised of respondents that the department of National Institute of Hydrology, Jal Vigyan Bhawan, Roorkee has not been notified for being brought under the jurisdiction of the Central Administrative Tribunals. Learned counsel for the applicant could not repel this argument and had to concede^{ed}. For the above we dismiss the OA being beyond the jurisdiction of this Tribunal. There shall be no order as to costs.
