Allahabad ... Respondents.

O R D E R

( By Hon. Mr. S. Das Gupta, A.M. )
Heard Sri K.P. Srivastava, learned counsel for the applicant on admission. The petitioner's case is that he has been granted temporary status by the order dated 30.7.1991 (Annexure- A6) w.e.f.

29.11.1989 but so far, he has not been regularised
in service despite of availability of vacancies.

The applicant has not shown us any ruling under which the casual employees having attained temporary status shall be regularised within a specific period.

It is also not the case of the applicant that any of his juniors have been regularised in service in preference to the applicant. In view of this, we do not find any cause of action in this case. However, it appears that the applicant having put in substantial period of service as casual employee with temporary status, has submitted a representation to the respondents for regularisation of his service. A copy of the undated representation is at Annexure-A 7.

2. In the facts and circumstances of the case, we are of the view that it would be just and fair on the part of the respondents to consider the said representation stated to have been submitted by the applicant and dispose it of by a reasoned and speaking order within a period of 3 months from the date of communication of this order. The application is disposed of with the above directions in limine.
