2. This contempt application was filed for alleged non-compliance with the directions contained in the order dated 01.12.1993 passed by the bench of this Tribunal disposing of O.A. 496/93. within a period of 3 months from the date of communication of the order. It now appears from the submissions made in the counter-affidavit that the respondents have already considered the case and decided to appoint the applicant against the Group 'D' post. It also appears that on further representation made by the applicant, the respondents are further considering the appointment of the applicant in a Group 'C' post and the same is under examination. It is, therefore, clear that the direction of the Tribunal has been fully complied with and this is also conceded by the applicant's counsel who does not want to press this application. The contempt application is accordingly dismissed and notices issued to the respondents are discharged.
