on the post of Vice-porter at station Bariyaram.

2. According to the applicant in the O.A., he has worked as Casual Worker on various dates beginning from 1.1.1978. He has also claimed that he worked in the last spell from 16.1.1983 to 15.2.1984 as Vice-Porter under the Station Master, Bariyaram and that his services were terminated by the Station Master by an oral order dated 15.2.1994.

3. The respondents have stated in the counter affidavit that due to vagueness of working details in the Casual labour card furnished by the applicant, the statements made by him regarding his working period could not be verified. They have denied that the applicant had ever worked as Porter under order of any competent authority.

4. The applicant has filed rejoinder affidavit annexing a more legible copy of the casual labour card.

5. The respondents have not denied that the applicant was working for some time as casual worker. They have only stated that they could not verify the actual period of work. There is no specific denial of the fact that the applicant had actually worked from 16.1.1983 till 15.2.1984.

6. In view of the foregoing, we dispose of this application with a direction to the applicant to produce before the respondents original casual labour card available with him and the respondents thereupon shall verify the working periods mentioned in the casual labour card from their own record and if the claims regarding working period is substantiated, his name shall be entered in the Live casual labour
