respondent no. 2 be directed not to interfere with the working of the petitioner as E.D.D.A and the services of the petitioner be also not terminated. Further direction sought was that the respondent no. 2 should be ~~given~~ <sup>give</sup> alternate employment to the petitioner. The O.A. was at the stage of admission when CA and RA were filed. At present the O.A. is listed for final hearing at the stage of admission.

2. Now Shri R. Verma, learned counsel for the applicant has moved Misc. Appl. 3604/97 on behalf of the applicant with the prayer that the relief which was sought by the applicant, was already granted to him by the respondents and thus he does not want to proceed with the case. In view of this fact and the Misc. Appl. no. 3604/97 the O.A. stands dismissed.
