ORDER

Hon'ble Mr. S. Dayal, Member-A.

Sri R.K. Tiwari learned counsel for the applicant. He had argued for admission of this case on the ground that there is a violation of rule in passing the order of recovery and when ever there is a violation of rule he can approach the Tribunal without recourse to departmental remedies.

2. The order of recovery was passed in July 1995 and the learned counsel for the applicant mentioned that the applicant is retireing in the Month of March 1996 and if the resprts to appeal, the period of appeal will be over and applicant would have ~~would have~~ paid full amount ordered to be recovered.

3. After hearing the learned counsel for the applicant I still feel that the applicant should file the appeal before the departmental <sup>authority</sup> ~~parties~~ and then come to the Tribunal.

4. The respondents are directed to consider the appeal expeditiously and not effect the recovery of the amount till they decide the appeal. The application is disposed of ~~of~~ with <sup>the</sup> above directions.

5. There shall be no order as to costs.
