taking in to consideration his total length of service since his first appointment made in 1958 as per para 313 A part II of Indian Railway Establishment Manual (IREM) and fix his proper pay and give him arrears and other consequential benefits.

2. The applicant, it appears, preferred a representation and one of the reliefs² claimed is that the respondents be directed to decide the representation of the applicant dated 09.12.1998 particularly in the light of para 313 A Part II of the IREM. The applicant has placed reliance on a decision dated 01.02.2005 of this Tribunal in OA No. 295/03 N.N. Verma Vs. U.O.I & Ors wherein the respondents were directed to decide the representation of the applicant therein by a reasoned and speaking order after proper self direction to the applicant's claim. Sri P. Mathur, learned counsel for the respondents submits that para 313 A (II) of the IREM relied on by the applicant has no application to the facts of the present case.

3. Having heard learned counsel for parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case particularly the relief claimed in the present OA, we are persuaded to decided the OA with direction to the competent authority to consider and dispose of the representation of the applicant by
