O R D E R (ORAL)

BY HON. MR. JUSTICE S.R. SINGH, V.C.

Heard Sri A.I. Naqvi, learned counsel for the applicants and Sri Chandrika Prasad holding brief of Sri R.C. Joshi, learned counsel for respondents and perused the pleadings. Since common question of law and facts involved in these O.As, they are being disposed by a common order with the consent of the counsel for both the parties.

2. The pay of the applicants w.e.f. 1.1.1996 was fixed in the scale of Rs.4000-6000 and the applicants continued to receive their salary in the scale of Rs.4000-6000 as per fixation of their pay in the said scale as indicated above right upto May, 2000. Subsequently, as per pay slips, the salaries payable to the applicants came to be reduced. It appears that the applicants preferred representations challenging reduction of their salaries without any rhyme and reason. The authorities, however, did not pay any heed and passed no order. The applicants then preferred Original Application and prayed for an interim relief. The Tribunal, by its interim order dated 7.11.2000, restrained the respondents from making any recovery from the salaries of the applicants till the next date. The said interim order was extended from time to time and is still continuing.

3. Learned counsel for applicant has submitted that the respondents were not justified in reducing the emoluments of the applicants without any rhyme or reason and without affording them an opportunity of hearing. In the Counter Affidavit it is alleged that on the implementation of Vth Central Pay Commission Report, the salaries of the applicants were wrongly fixed and on the mistake being discovered, the same has been corrected. The recovery from the applicants, according to the respondents, is neither illegal nor arbitrary

4. Having heard counsel for the parties, we are of the view that if once pay was fixed in the revised scale as on 1.1.1996, mistake, if any, in the fixation of pay, ought to have been corrected after notice to the applicants. It is not the case of the respondents that the applicants were responsible for wrong fixation, if any, of their pay in the revised scale w.e.f. 1.1.1996.

5. We are, therefore, of the view that the respondents were under the obligation to afford an opportunity to the applicants before directing recovery of the excess payment.

if any, on account of wrong fixation in the revised scale. However, we are of the view that it would meet the ends of justice if the Original Application is disposed of with a direction to the respondents that the mistake, if any, in the fixation of pay in the revised scale w.e.f. 1.1.96 should be corrected only after giving an opportunity showing cause to the applicants. Pending such decision further recovery from the salaries of the applicants, who are in service and from pension of those who have already retired, shall be kept in abeyance.

No order as to costs.
