ORDER

Hon'ble Mr. S.K.I. Naqvi, JM

Shri A.K. Srivastava, learned counsel for the applicant. Shri D.C. Saxena, learned counsel for the respondents. Heard. It has been pleaded on behalf of the respondents that the suspension of the applicant has been revoked and the salary of suspended period ~~should~~<sup>is</sup> not be paid to him as he was absenting himself from the office. Shri D.C. Saxena, further mentions that undelivered cheque for payment of subsistence allowance for the some of Rs. 1102/- is with him and may be delivered to the applicant, if he <sup>is</sup> ready to accept the same. ~~an~~ Learned counsel for the applicant readily accepted the cheque and mentions that the applicant is also present in person.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant further mentions that no order for alleged revocation of suspension has been given to him instead of his attending the office every day. ~~and~~ <sup>thereby</sup> ~~we~~ find that interim order dated 19.8.99 stands complied with, ~~for~~ non compliance of which this Contempt Application has been filed. So far as the revocation of suspension is concerned ~~that is not final~~ issue in this Contempt Application. Therefore, no further action ~~be~~<sup>is</sup> needed in this Contempt Application.
