Heard counsel for the applicant. In disciplinary proceedings charge against the applicant was that he was found sleeping on duty though the duty on which he was posted ^{was} as a gateman. The disciplinary Authority passed order of removal on conclusion of inquiry. The Appellate Authority, however, reduced the punishment from removal from service to reduction of lowest grade in the grade of Rs.775-1025/-. It was also provided that the interim period i.e. from the date of removal to the date of fresh appointment shall be treated as 'diesnon'. Considering the charge and the seriousness of the consequences, in our opinion no interference at this stage is called for by this Tribunal. The applicant has already filed revision against the appellate order, a
