O R D E R (Oral)

By Hon'ble Mr.C.S. Chadha, Member (A)

The applicants were working in the Indian Council of Agriculture Research (for short I.C.A.R.) and were superannuated at the age of 60 years. Their claim is that they should also be allowed to superannuate at the age of 62 years as applicable to other government department. The important issue in this case is that the I.C.A.R. did not accept the recommendation of the Vth Pay Commission and did not extend the benefit of retirement at the age of 62 years to its employees. A representation of the Workers Association met the concerning authorities and the matter was referred to the Govt. of India for a final decision but no decision has been taken on the said representation. It is quite evident that unless and until the benefit of retirement at the age of 62 is also extended by the respondents to its employees in the I.C.A.R., same benefit cannot be claimed as a matter of right. In similar matters decided by the Principal Bench in O.A.Nos. 166 of 1999, along-with connected matters on 23.03.2002, the Principal Bench disallowed the O.A. with a further direction to the applicants that they may request the Govt. of India to take an early decision in the matter. We are in respectful agreement with the said Judgment and we pass a similar order. We also passed a similar order in O.A.No.198 of 1999 Dr.S.S.Bhatia Vs.U.O.I. & Ors.

2. In view of the above, O.A. is dismissed.
The applicants may approach the Govt. of India for consideration of their representations in this regard. No order as to costs.
