Hon'ble Mr. S.K.I. Naqvi, Member-J

The applicant Shri Subba Yadav, has come up before Tribunal for direction to quash the order dated 01.05.2000, through which the representation of the applicant has been dismissed and also to quash the advertisement dated 04.07.2000, through which applications have been invited for regular appointment for filling up the post of E.D.M.P. at Post Office Mau and also to direct the respondents to give proper appointment to the applicant.

2. As per applicant's case, he is working on the post as substitute in place of Shri Faujdar who was incombant <sup>to</sup> of the post and has worked for about 3 years. Therefore, the right has ~~acrued~~<sup>accrued</sup> to him for regular appointment with the post.

3. It is not in dispute that the applicant has held the post as substitute and no lien <sup>accrued</sup> ~~acrued~~ to him. Learned counsel for the applicant also failed to show any rule under which he could be appointed and for his <sup>services</sup> ~~regularisation~~ without under going the regular selection. The OA is devoid of merit, hence dismissed at admission stage. No order as to costs.
