ORDER

This application has been filed for a direction to respondents to appoint the applicant on compassionate grounds as his father late Ram Bachan Ram, who was serving as Fitter died in harness on 17.5.1999 leaving behind his widow, two sons and a daughter. Applicant is one of the sons. The claim of the applicant has been rejected by the impugned order dated 13.11.2000. The learned counsel ⁱⁿ for the applicant has submitted that ⁱⁿ the representation, the applicant raised several pleas for claiming compassionate appointment. However, no reasons ⁱⁿ had been mentioned in the order for not accepting the claim of the applicant. The order is totally ⁱⁿ vague and arbitrary and is also violative of principles of natural justice. The order reads as under:

...2...

The aforesaid language of the order as mentioned above does not make any sense. It does not disclose any reason for not accepting the claim.

2. In the circumstances, the impugned order is quashed. The respondents shall pass a fresh order within a period of three months from the date of a copy of the order is filed. The applicant shall file a ^{Copy of} representation along with a copy of this order. No order as to costs.
