By Hon'ble Mr. S. Dayal, A.M. :

Contd...2.

2. The applicant had claimed that they were working as Telephone Attendants and were entitled to promotion as Telephone operators. ^{in their reply to the representation} The respondents have held that they had not worked as Telephone operators and they were wrongly mentioned as Telephone Attendants on muster roll. L

3. Since the direction in the O.A. was for deciding the representation and the same has been decided by the respondents. No case for contempt exists. Therefore, the contempt petition is dismissed as mis-conceived.
