as disciplinary proceedings were pending against him. The disciplinary proceedings were concluded by order of Senior Divisional Manager dated 21-11-98 and the applicant was awarded the penalty of censure. The applicant has sent representations for opening the sealed cover and grant of promotion as the penalty of censure does not bar his promotion.

3. We have heard the arguments of Shri Sudama Ram, for the applicant and Shri M.K.Sharma brief holder of Shri A.K.Gaur, for the respondents.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant has referred to the letter of Railway Board No. E(D&A) 92 RG-6-149(A) New Delhi dated 22-1-1993. In note under paragraph 3.9 of the said letter it has been mentioned that if delinquent is given penalty of censure, recovery from pay or stoppage of passes/P.T.O he may be promoted when his promotion was due.

5. The applicant has made several representations. The representation dated 30-10-2000 was forwarded to General Manager (P) Baroda House, New Delhi for declaration of Panel under 70% quota. It is claimed that this as well as other representations of the applicant have not been responded ^{to} by the respondents.

6. In the light of the above facts we direct the respondents to consider the representation dated 30-10-2000 within a period of 2 months from the date of ^{receipt} ~~receipts~~ of a copy of this order along with a copy of the said representation in order to facilitate its consideration by the respondents. They shall pass a speaking order and communicate the same to the applicant. There shall be no order as to costs.
