2. Grievance of the applicant in this case is that he was a minor at the time when his father died on 23.09.2001 leaving behind 2 wives and 4 male children including the applicant as a minor. Thereafter, since deceased employee had left two wives, he filed a succession certificate <sup>was</sup> as required by the Railway authorities, which was issued from the office of the Tehsildar Ballia to prove the successor of the deceased Late Shri Bhimal Yadav. On the basis of said certificate, applicant has been paid a sum of Rs.86,442/- as a death benefit of his father being a minor through his mother. However, since he was a minor, he could not give <sup>at that relevant time, 18</sup> application for grant of compassionate appointment. ^ Therefore, after attaining the age of majority applicant gave application dated 17.05.2003 in the office of Respondent No.2 but till date the same has not been decided by the respondents. On the contrary appointment on compassionate ground has been given to the son of first wife i.e. the respondent No.3 herein vide office order dated 13.08.2003 (Pg.12). Applicant has challenged the said order on the ground that even if the second marriage is null and void but the child borne out of the wedlock would be legitimate and would have equal right <sup>like</sup> like other children. Therefore, at least his application should have been considered by the respondents and appropriate orders should have been passed thereon.

3. Counsel for the respondents was seeking time to file reply but since grievance of the applicant in this case is that his application has not even been considered by the department and he <sup>is</sup> ~~has~~ stated to have ~~been~~ given the succession certificate also to the respondents No.2, ~~Therefore~~, I am of the opinion that this case can be decided at the admission stage itself without going into the merits of the case by giving a direction to the respondent No.2 to consider the application of applicant and to pass an appropriate order thereon in accordance with law within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It goes without saying that the orders should be ~~passed~~ reasoned and speaking order.

4. With the above directions, this O.A. is disposed off at the admission stage itself with no order as to costs.
