O R D E R

By this O.A the applicant has sought direction to the respondents to post the applicant on the post of SC counter/RD counter Assistant.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that the applicant had passed the aptitude test on the pattern of incentive bonus scheme in the year 1990. The passing of this test entitles him to be posted on S.C/R.D counter. He also states that the present incumbent working at that counter has not passed the aforesaid test. His contention is that he made several representations to the authorities concerned for being posted at the S.C/R.D counter. These representations are dated 04.10.2002, 28.10.2002 and 17.02.2003. It has been further stated that the applicant has also approached the Hon'ble High Court and after hearing counsel for the petitioner, the Hon'ble High Court, Allahabad has ordered that in accordance with the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in L. Chandra Kumar Vs. U.O.I and ors. 1997 (3) SCC, 271, the Central Administrative Tribunal is the court of first instance in the matter of employees with the Central Government.

3. Learned counsel for the respondents has raised objection that the case is time barred. However, in view of the instructions of the Hon'ble High Court and also taking into consideration the representations mentioned above filed by the applicant would indicate that the applicant has been making genuine efforts for getting himself appointed on the aforesaid post.

4. The interest of justice will ^{be} better ~~be~~ served if the respondent No. 3 is directed to ~~decide~~ ^{decide} his representation within a stipulated time. The O.A is accordingly disposed of with direction to Senior Superintendent of Post, Jhansi Division, Jhansi (respondent No. 3) to decide the representation of the applicant within a period of four months by passing a reasoned and speaking order. To avoid delay, the applicant may ~~filed~~ ^{file} fresh representation alongwith copy of this order.

5. There will be no order as to costs.
