JUSTICE R.R.K.TRIVEDI,V.C. .

By ^u This OA u/s 19 of A.T.Act 1985 applicant has challenged the order dated 17.11.2000 by which disciplinary authority on conclusion of the proceedings passed order of removal from service. The charge against the applicant was that for obtaining loan of Rs 15,000 from Punjab National Bank he had used official stamp of one Smt. R.A.Aziz Ali, Ex.DGM/A O.F., Dehradun. Her signatures were also forged by applicant and undertaking was given in favour of bank.
The inquiry was held and it was ^u found that the signatures of Smt. Aziz Ali were forged as they were not ~~dealing with~~ ^{dealing with} tallying with the undisputed signatures. On these facts and circumstances the order of punishment has been passed, In appeal the Appellate Authority considered the submissions made by the applicant in detail and found that the submissions have no merit.

We have carefully examined both the orders and we do not find any illegality in the orders calling for our interference.

The OA has no merit and is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
