O R D E R

JUSTICE S.R.SINGH,V.C.

Heard counsel for the parties. The service of the applicant was terminated by order dated 27.7.02. The said order came to be quashed by the Tribunal vide order dated 25.3.303. The applicant was directed to be reinstated with all back wages and was further directed to <sup>be</sup> conferred temporary status w.e.f. 1.9.1993. In compliance of the order passed by the Tribunal, the Competent Authority also issued an order dated 7.11.03. On the same date another ~~an another~~ order was issued asking the applicant to furnish security for payment of backwages. The security was furnished and thereafter back wages also paid. It appears, that the writ petition against the judgment of the Tribunal was disposed of with the observation to file a review petition before the Tribunal. While disposing of the writ petition the High court also provided that till the disposal of review petition the conferral of temporary status shall be kept in abeyance. The arguments in writ petition, it is stated at the bar, have been concluded and the judgment is reserved in High court. In the circumstances, therefore, we do not find it a fit case for proceeding in contempt jurisdiction.

The contempt petition is, therefore, dismissed.
